Annual Chamber Dinner to honor Craig Dunkin, long-term local businesses Thursday evening at Anderson Country Club

Anderson building contractor Craig Dunkin will be honored with the first Character in Business Award, and five local businesses will receive Chamber long-term service awards Thursday evening at The Chamber's Annual Dinner Meeting at the Anderson Country Club.

Keynote speaker will be Michael Strong, Anderson factory manager for the Beverage Division of Nestlé USA.

A reception at 6 p.m. will precede the dinner at 6:30. The dinner is open to the public, although few seats remain. Tickets are $45 each and include an elegant sit-down dinner.

Dunkin, president of W.R. Dunkin & Son, Inc. and a fourth generation member of the general contracting company, will be presented an award conferred by The Chamber of Commerce for Anderson & Madison County in cooperation with the Center for Character Development at Anderson University. Intent of the award is to honor an outstanding and successful business person who has demonstrated the six pillars of character: Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Caring and Citizenship. Keith Trent of Community Hospital, chairman of The Chamber's Board of Directors, will confer the award.

Also Chamber service awards will be presented to Gwinn's Drug Stores, Inc., and Miller Huggins, Inc., for 75 years in business, and to Elston-Richards, Inc.; Rainbow Advertising, and Riley & Sons, Inc., for 50 years.

Strong, the guest speaker, has been with the Nestlé Corporation since 1994 following his graduation from North Carolina State University. He has served at several Nestlé locations in the U.S. and Canada prior to coming to Anderson to oversee the construction of the new Nestlé plant.

Corporate sponsors for the dinner are: Gold – Anderson University and The Flagship Enterprise Center, Hoosier Park and The Herald Bulletin; Silver – Community Hospital Anderson, W. R. Dunkin & Son, Inc.; E & B Paving, Inc.; Saint John's Health System, Tractor Supply Company and Wal*Mart; and Bronze – Anderson/Madison County Visitors & Convention Bureau, KeyBank, Ricker Oil Company, Inc; STAR Financial Bank and West Electric, Inc.
